

The Recovery In-Sight Centre — Thursday 29th April 2010
Launch - “users in the lead”

9.30am - 10am: coffee

10am: Welcome Dr Heather Straughan, Director and inauguration from the Mayor of The Borough of Welwyn Hatfield, Cllr Kim Langley and the Mayor of Hatfield Town Cllr Caron Juggins.

10.20am: sound bite from DVD.

10.30am: Dr Jan Wallcraft, User Research Lead, The Recovery In-Sight Centre – evaluating the user-led In-Sight training.

11.00am: David Crepaz-Keay, Senior Policy Advisor on Patient and Public Involvement for the Mental Health Foundation – making service user involvement effective.

11.20am: Coffee

11.40am: sound bite from DVD.

11.50am: Dr Glenn Roberts, lead psychiatrist for recovery for the Royal College of Psychiatrists and consultant psychiatrist for Recovery Devon – No more ‘them and us’? Rebalancing relationships in the service of mental health.

12.20pm: Sarah Yiannoullou, Manager, National Service User Network – User leadership - A national perspective: Realising peer-led services & the direct voice influencing policy.

12.40pm – 1.30pm: Lunch.

1.30pm: Dr Mike Slade, Head of Section for Recovery, Institute of Psychiatry. Clinical Psychologist in Rehabilitation – Peer support in Australia & New Zealand.

1.50pm: Mary Nettle, user researcher and chair of the European network of users/ survivors – So you want to be a self-employed user consultant like me?

2.10pm: sound bite from DVD.

2.20 pm: Dr Rachel Perkins, Director of quality assurance and user & carer experience, South West London & St Georges Mental Health NHS Trust – title awaited.

2.40pm: Dr David Armes, Service User Researcher – Can entrepreneurial professionalism co-exist with pride?: How far does the overarching hope and pride in the abilities and unity of service-users and survivors reported in 2000 still exist and guide service-users and survivors engaged in The Recovery In-Sight Centre as a user-led company?

3pm: Close - coffee. Networking.

Soundbites & Filming on the day by BBC film makers, Bob Walters & Ruth Tid-

The Recovery In-Sight Centre, MacClaurin Building, 4 Bishop Square, Hatfield, Herts AL10 9NE

Tel. 01707-284808

www.recoveryin-sight.com